

Glue Sniffing Could Mean Quick Death

Three Hope teenagers were tried and convicted of drunkenness in Municipal Court on Tuesday caused by "glue sniffing." The matter had come to the attention of authorities upon a complaint by one of the girl's mother who came home from work and found her daughter, and two friends, and called police.

In passing sentence in court Municipal Judge John L. Wilson complimented the parent for her concern and cooperation, and read from a nationally known article entitled "Glue Sniffing — Big Trouble in a Tube" written by Dr. Lindsay R. Curtis, M.D., who had studied the effects of such activity on the human system. Judge Wilson told the defendants that glue sniffing could lead to immediate death, or at least activity on the human system. Judge Wilson told the defendants that glue sniffing could lead to immediate death, or at least would damage kidneys, the liver and the brain, and would finally lead to damage to bone marrow, resulting in aplastic anemia, a fatal blood disease.

The defendants were each sentenced to thirty days in jail, but the sentence was suspended due to their age upon good behavior in the future. They were then released to the custody of their parents.

James H. Pilkinton, City Attorney, who presented the case said today that glue sniffing, formerly a problem only in large cities, has now seemingly spread to smaller communities. He pointed out that unless checked by authorities and parents, sniffers become a community problem because (1) they tend to spread the habit to others, (2) they resort to stealing to meet their growing need for glue, (3) they become easy targets for narcotics peddlers as they seek greater "thrills", and (4) constitute a hazard to others if operating motor vehicles.

Mr. Pilkinton said that the authorities had received other complaints about the matter from custodians of public buildings who had reported evidence of glue sniffing in rest rooms. He asked the public to be alert to the problem, and to assist concerned parents and officials in their effort to stamp out the practice in Hope.

In London, Princess Lee Radziwill said she had spoken to her sister, President Kennedy's widow, but "she tells me the news is pretty confused so far."

Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy was at her New York Fifth Avenue home when the shooting of her brother-in-law occurred.

She was not available for comment.

News of the shooting caused "acute sorrow" at the Vatican, the chief press official there said. He said Pope Paul VI was being kept informed constantly of the condition of the senator, who is a Roman Catholic.

"It's a nightmare — it's terrible," said a Russian woman on a Moscow street.

Tass, the official news agency, reported the shooting briefly and without comment.

Italian President Giuseppe Saragat expressed shock and dismay and told the Italian Embassy in Washington to keep him constantly informed of Kennedy's condition. Aides termed the shooting "a nefarious and vile attempt."

The news reached Europeans first by radio and television broadcasts. News agency offices were besieged by telephone calls. First editions of London afternoon papers spread the news in huge black type across their front pages.

"This is horrible, horrible," said a spokesman for the Swiss government in Bern, where the cabinet was meeting when the news broke.

"The same thing all over again," said a diplomat in Bern. "Horrid, horrid."

Crowds gathered at Tokyo newspaper offices to read bulletins pasted in the windows. Men shook their heads in disbelief. Some women wiped tears from their eyes, other muttered prayers.

"Unbelievable," said a Belgian government official in Brussels. "American political ways are frightening."

Greece's military government expressed "deep sorrow" over the shooting, and Premier George Papadopoulos called the senator the government's wishes for a speedy recovery.

Sean McBride, secretary-general of the International Commission of Justice, termed the shooting "a symptom of the lawlessness and brutality of our world." His organization is the Western world's organization of jurists, teachers of law and lawyers.

The government of Thailand expressed "deep shock and regret."

Consolidation of Towns Fails

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP) — The proposal to consolidate the towns of Paragould and Center Hill failed in a special vote Tuesday.

Paragould favored the plan, 544-278, but Center Hill voted against it, 103-204.

Consolidation depended upon approval by both towns.

around the nation — including Kennedy's rival on the campaign primary trail, Minnesota's Senator McCarthy — expressed shock and sorrow. Johnson ordered the full resources of the FBI thrown into the case and ordered secret service protection for major candidates.

Kennedy was brought first to Central Receiving Hospital where a doctor said he was "practically dead" upon arrival.

Physicians there administered closed cardiac massage, oxygen and adrenalin. "At first he was pulseless," said a doctor who treated him, "then his pulse came back and we began to hear a heart beat and he began to breathe — a little ratically."

The doctor, Victor Baz, said Ethel Kennedy, who accompanied her husband in the ambulance, was frightened — "she didn't believe he was alive because she couldn't see that he was responding. I put the stethoscope to her ears so she could listen and she was tremendously relieved."

She was "very superb ... very edgy, but my own wife wouldn't have done as well. I don't think. She was gracious at all times."

Kennedy was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital near downtown Los Angeles. There a team of six surgeons began brain surgery at 3:12 a.m., that lasted about 3 hours and 40 minutes.

Doctors said one bullet struck near the right ear and entered the brain. Another hit in the shoulder. A third apparently grazed his forehead.

Kennedy's press aide said after the surgery that no further effort is planned for removal of the remaining bullet fragment in the skull. "Some fragments of the bullet and bone went to the brain stem," he said, and the senator lost considerable blood.

Kennedy was moved, unconscious, to the hospital's intensive care unit.

The surgery was pronounced successful in that it accomplished what it set out to do, remove most of the bullet.

Kennedy's personal physician was flying here from Boston.

The actual surgery here was performed by Drs. Maxwell Ambler of the University of California at Los Angeles Medical School and Nat Downes Reid and Henry Cuneo of the University of Southern California Medical School.

Police set about immediately trying to reconstruct the shooting.

Officers said they believe there was only one man involved, the man being questioned. They booked him as "John Doe" on suspicion of assault with intent to commit murder.

In Washington, Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark said the FBI is investigating every possible angle, and "according to information that I have at this moment we have no evidence of conspiracy."

Clark told a news conference: "It seems incredible that another such profound tragedy would strike the Kennedy family which has suffered so much from violence already."

Clark was an assistant in the Justice Department when Kennedy was attorney general.

Kennedy aides said 6 of Kennedy's 10 children who accompanied him here are being returned to Washington on an Air Force plane arranged for by a campaign rival, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Kennedy, in his address to the cheering supporters just before the shooting, was in good spirits with the long primary campaign trail behind him. He looked tired, however, and was looking forward to a few days of rest at the Malibu Beach home of a friend.

Then the shots rang out.

One witness said the shots came so close together that he could hardly believe they had been fired by one gun. This reporter heard the shots from an adjoining room and they sounded almost like a brief burst of machine-gun fire.

License of Springdale Firm Suspended

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The trading license of Central Sales Co., Inc., of Springdale, Ark., was suspended Tuesday for failure to pay a reparation award, the U.S. Department of Agriculture said.

The suspension means that the firm and its officers, directors and stockholders were not entitled to conduct business under the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act until the reparation of $4,256 is satisfied, officials said.

The USDA said that a Grand Rapids, Mich., shipper had complained that Central Sales failed to pay for three partial truckloads of apples, and that the firm had admitted owing the full amount claimed.

Officers, directors and stockholders of Central Sales were identified as Gene Vandervliet, Helen E. Vandervliet and Charles E. Davis.

Russellville to Vote on Expansion

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Russellville will vote Tuesday on whether to extend its city limits and annex an estimated 3,000 residents.

The main fight against the annexation is coming from areas west of the city where one new city, Norristown, already has been incorporated, and a petition to incorporate another, Oulta, is set for a hearing before County Judge Wayne Nordin on the morning of the election.

The Oulta petitions were filed the day after the annexation proposal was referred to the ballots. Annexation proponents contend that a favorable vote would mean the area is annexed even if the corporation petition is granted.

Others Shot by Gunman Identified

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Police Department today identified those other wounded in the Kennedy shooting as:

William Weisel, 30, 2700 Up-ton, Washington, D.C., who suffered a bullet wound in the left side near the abdomen. He was taken to Kaiser Hospital, Los Angeles. Weisel is a unit manager for the American Broadcasting Corp.

Ira Goldstein, 19, 4077 Havenhurst, Los Angeles, who received a bullet wound in the left hip. He was transferred to Encino Hospital, Encino. Goldstein is an employee of Continental News Service at nearby Sherman Oaks.

Elizabeth Evans, 16032 W. Placencia, Saugus, Calif., wounded by a glancing bullet at the hairline. She was transferred to Huntington Memorial Hospital.

Irwin Stroll, 17, 6089 Horner, Los Angeles, who was wounded in the left shin. He was treated and released by Central Receiving Hospital.

Paul Schrade, 43, who received a skull fracture. A spokesman for the United Auto Workers, of which Schrade is a local officer, said doctors were to operate to remove a bullet which lodged in Schrade's head and caused the fracture. He was listed in good condition at Kaiser Hospital.

Patrick Thornton, 208 S. St. Andrews, Los Angeles, sustained a three-inch scalp laceration when hit by a camera. He was treated and released at Central Receiving.

Officers added that two other persons were treated for shock and released.

Search for Prisoner Continues

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Police were continuing their search today for a Tucker Prison Farm inmate who escaped here Tuesday.

Police said George Overton, 25, serving 12 years from Pulaski County for assault with intent to rob and robbery, jumped from a car while being transported to the State Hospital for a medical examination.

Prison officials said Overton escaped while the car was stopped at a traffic light. They said he had relatives in North Little Rock.

Will Discuss Fabrics at Laundry Fair

CORA L. GUTHRIDGE

Mrs. Cora Lee Guthridge, Clothing Specialist, Agricultural Extension Service, University of Arkansas, will discuss what's new in washable fabrics at Laundry Fair Thursday, June 6, at the Livestock Show Coliseum in Hope.

Mrs. Guthridge comes to Hope through the local Extension office and has a special interest in today's homemaker being informed with a practical workable knowledge of fiber and fabric developments and how these will influence the homemaker's clothing and fabric selections.

Homemakers will receive current information on characteristics, identity and cues for care. Selecting and caring for fabrics is somewhat different today with some 250 different synthetic and natural fabrics not to mention the numerous finishes and blends.

Fabric dealers in Hope will be exhibiting a display of fabrics available to the consumer for clothing construction. Dealers showing fabrics will be Haynes Brothers, Fabric Center, Lewis McLarty, Penney's, Rephans, Wests and Owens.

Mrs. Guthridge worked in Hempstead County in 1940 and 41 as Cora Lee Westbrook before receiving special training leading to present position as clothing specialist. Mrs. Guthridge has assisted the last few years with special 4 year clothing construction series in Hempstead County and serves as a continual avenue of the latest research through the local Extension Home Economists.

Hear Mrs. Guthridge and get better acquainted with the fabrics on today's market.

MORE ON "SHOULD 18- YEAR-OLDS VOTE?"

Dear Helen: We hear so much on the question of "if they're old enough to fight, they're old enough to vote." Why not settle this by allowing the vote only to those 18-21-year-olds who serve in the Armed Forces? This would separate the men from the boys!

(Note from H.: How about the girls?)

If an "18-year vote" was passed now, all the Hippies, pill-poppers, pot-smokers, rioters and draft card burners might combine to get their kind elected to office. Wouldn't it be interesting to see a Representative go tinkling into the State House in full regalia of beads, bells, beard and sandals? I'll admit, what we have now sometimes make a mess of things, but at least it doesn't shame our country to see their faces in the paper.

What really burns me is that the above mentioned are for the most part immune from the draft, for they're rejected as "unfit." Anyone with a criminal background knows he probably won't have to serve in the Army. I know a recruiter who says he has a hard time filling his quota because of the cards marked, "Rejected, Police Record." In other words, the law puts a penalty on honor and decency and gives a reward to the lawless. Seems to me the Army could

Will Let Bids on I-30 for Hempstead

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Highway Commission advertised for bids Tuesday on nine road and bridge projects, including three interstate jobs, at an estimated total cost of $7.6 million.

Laundry Fair Rescheduled Thursday

ELIZABETH ELLIS

Elizabeth Ellis, Home Management Specialist, Agricultural Extension Service, University of Arkansas, will discuss "Selecting Laundry Equipment and Laundry Techniques" at Laundry Fair, Thursday, June 6 at the coliseum in Fair Park.

Miss Ellis has a unique ability to get homemakers to think for themselves and solve their own laundry problems. Laundry techniques will be given scientific reasoning in an explanatory manner understood by all. Homemakers will better understand why fabrics turn yellow or become grayed and how these and other laundry problems can be prevented or perhaps corrected.

Does the type equipment you use influence the type laundry products used? Why would you use "low sudsing detergents" or oxygen bleach? chlorine bleach? fabric softener? water softener? What are the affects? Hear the answers at the Laundry Fair.

Dealers will be cooperating by exhibiting a display of equipment offering those attending an opportunity to see and compare various features and types available to today's consumer. Dealers exhibiting equipment will be Collier Furniture and Appliance, Hamm Tire and Appliance, Lehman's Home Center, Western Auto, Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Sears-Roebuck, Home Furniture, Hope Hardware, Oklahoma Tire and Supply, and Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company.

Different types of laundry products will be exhibited by A&P Food Store, Safeway and Kroger. Homemakers attending the Pots and Pans Meeting last year will recall Miss Ellis' interesting unbiased manner of educating and will want to hear Miss Ellis as a part of the Laundry Fair Thursday from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. or 7:00 p.m. to 9 p.m. There is nothing to buy. Come as you are.

The Instant Coffee Fight Is Brewing

By ROBERT T. GRAY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A hot fight is brewing between the Johnson administration and a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee over how much American housewives should have to pay for Brazil's instant coffee.

And Betty Furness, whose job involves making sure the housewives pay fair prices, is being called into the dispute.

The administration seeks committee support for a revised five-year extension of the International Coffee Agreement. But Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., argues that one of the revisions would force American housewives to pay more for instant coffee.

Brazil does not levy an export tax on instant coffee. And the State Department says that allowing cut-rate instant coffee into the United States and other markets could undermine the international agreement and eventually mean higher prices for both instant and regular coffee.

Unsatisfied with that answer, Gore wants the opinion of Miss Furness, President Johnson's consumer affairs adviser.

She agreed to testify today. Gore clashed at an initial hearing Tuesday with Anthony Solomon, assistant secretary of state for economic affairs.

When Brazil began shipping instant-coffee powder without the export tax, the United States and other nations of the coffee-making agreement argued Brazil was favoring instant coffee at the expense of green coffee beans on which it did have an export tax.

As a result, the proposed new international agreement contains a provision that no member country will favor one type of coffee export over another through taxes or other governmental action.

gate votes at the national convention. State Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch heading an uncommitted delegate slate, was drawing a vote of about 15 per cent. California Gov. Ronald Reagan was unopposed as a favorite-son candidate for 88 GOP delegate votes.

Incumbent Republican Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, seeking nomination for re-election, was falling behind State Superintendent of Public Instruction Max Rafferty.

In South Dakota, Kennedy scored a decisive victory over McCarthy and a stand-in slate for Humphrey for 24 convention delegates.

A slate pledged on the ballot to President Johnson—but which had said after Johnson withdrew that its votes would go to Humphrey—was second and McCarthy's slate third.

Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon was unopposed to control 14 GOP convention votes.

In other primaries Tuesday: —A New Jersey Democratic organization slate headed by Gov. Richard J. Hughes won some 58 of the state's 82 Democratic delegates and McCarthy won at least 12, possibly all of the remainder.

—Republican Montana Gov. Tim Babcock, seeking the nomination for re-election, took a commanding lead—55 to 39 per cent at one point—over his challenger, Lt. Gov. Ted James.

—Former Alabama Lt. Gov. James B. Allen appeared to have won a narrow runoff win over Rep. Armistead Selden for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Alabama.

—All five Mississippi Democratic representatives—Reps. Jamie L. Whitten, Thomas G. Abernethy, Charles Griffin, G. V. Montgomery and William M. Colmer—won nominations for re-election. Whitten was unopposed.

Parts of the Applan Way, 2,000-year-old Roman highway, are still in use today.

Says Blame Shared by Legislators

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—House Speaker Sterling Cockrill Jr. of Little Rock said Tuesday night that Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller had failed to convince members of the General Assembly that his tax program was urgently needed, but added that the legislators would have to share the blame with Rockefeller for the recent special legislative session.

"I'm not saying he didn't have a heck of a selling job to do to some of the closed minds in the legislature," Cockrill said, "but the fact remains that he didn't get the job done."

Cockrill said, however, that some legislators had not provided the leadership needed to pass Rockefeller's tax package. "When I say that, I have to engage in self criticism," he said, "because I personally did not exert the potent leadership that's necessary to enact tax increases and whiskey legislation."

"I can only defend myself and the other potential leaders in the legislature by saying that we weren't asked to help, and that many of us were not truly convinced that the problems had to be solved in this session."

Cockrill also said the legislature had become an independent body when Rockefeller was elected.

"I think the people of Arkansas are tired of two-bit wheeler-dealer politicians," he said. "That's why it was probably a good thing that we changed administrations when we did, and I don't think we made a mistake in electing Winthrop Rockefeller over Jim Johnson."

Cockrill admitted that some of the legislators opposed Rockefeller's programs "just for spite" and called the recent special session an "injustice" to Arkansans.

Travs Power Too Much for Spurs

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Mike Christino belted his 13th home run of the season and Jerry Davanon cracked a bases-loaded double to power the Arkansas Travelers to a 8-2 Texas League victory over Dallas-Fort Worth Tuesday night. Davanon's three-run shot gave the Travelers a 7-2 lead and put the game out of reach. Christino's solo homer in the ninth wrapped up the scoring. The Travelers erased a 1-0 Spur lead with a pair of runs in the fifth on John Ruberto's double and an infield grounder by Boots Day.

Day drove in another run in the seventh with a similar slow roller. Andy Martin notched his fifth victory of the year against three losses for the Travs. He checked the Spurs on seven hits and yielded single runs in the third and sixth innings. Paul Doyle, now 1-5, was the loser for the Spurs.

Carl Morton limited Memphis to five hits as the Shreveport Braves slipped past the Blues 5-4 in another Texas League game Tuesday. Shreveport pounded three Memphis pitchers for 11 hits. The Braves went ahead for good in the fourth inning when they pushed across two runs on three singles.

Rick Folkers, who was relieved in the fourth, was the loser for Memphis.

In other games, El Paso whipped Amarillo 8-5 and a doubleheader between Albuquerque and San Antonio was rained out. Arkansas 000 020 141-8 12 1. Dal-FW 001 001 000-2 7 1. SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Arkansas State University will play Delta State of Cleveland, Miss., at 8 p.m. today in the first round of the first annual NCAA college division baseball tournament here.

The Indians are ranked 15th nationally and Delta State is the only unranked team in the national tournament. These two teams met twice during the regular season. Chisox Get Taste of Own Medicine

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Chicago White Sox, a sickly hitting group of ballyhooers, got a taste of their own medicine and found out how distasteful it is.

The Cleveland Indians spooned it out Tuesday night and forced the Sox to swallow two patty-pat runs in the eighth inning that brought the Indians a 2-1 victory.

An infield hit, a broken bat single and a safe bunt set up the two runs that turned the Sox green. It was the type of pop-gun attack they have been using to get ahead in the American League.

Luis Tiant made the runs stand up with a four-hitter, one of several sparkling pitching performances in the league on a day of light hitting.

Jim Merritt also yielded only four hits in Minnesota's 3-0 victory over the New York Yankees, and Joe Coleman hurled a five-hitter behind Mike Epstein's two-run homer for Washington's 4-2 decision over Oakland.

Gary Bell, with last out help from Sparky Lyle, stopped Detroit on three hits as Boston tripped the Tigers 2-0 before relief specialist Pat Dobson emerged from the bullpen with a five-hitter to give the Tigers a 2-0 decision and a split of their doubleheader.

California nudged Baltimore 5-3 in 10 innings on Tom Satriano's two-run single in the other game.

In the National League, the New York Mets blanked the Chicago Cubs 5-0 in the only afternoon game, and St. Louis nipped Houston 3-2, Cincinnati beat Atlanta 3-1, Los Angeles bounced Pittsburgh 5-0 and Philadelphia defeated San Francisco 5-1 in night games.

The White Sox, true to their code, were locked in a pitching duel between their own Gary Peters and Tiant and led 1-0 on a walk to Peters, a sacrifice and Bill Voss' hit in the third inning.

The fifth hit off Peters was Chico Salmon's leadoff infield safety in the eighth. Jose Vidal followed with the broken bat hit to right field and Vern Fuller then got the only clean hit of the inning, a line drive to right that tied the score.

Tiant, now 8-4, beat out a bunt when no one covered first base and the decisive run came across on Larry Brown's sacrifice fly.

Normally slugging Minnesota also resorted to a tip-toe attack behind Merritt, 4-4, on the strength of three sacrifice flies, two by Harmon Killebrew and one by Tony Oliva.

Epstein, making his first appearance since returning from a 12-day stint in the minor leagues to pep up his weak bat, roused the Senators out of a 2-2 tie with his blast in the sixth inning. The clout doubled his runs batted in to four and his homers to two and raised his batting average to .105.

Bell, 5-1, was breezing to his second straight shutout when two walks got him in trouble in the ninth and Lyle entered and got Jim Price to hit into a force out.

Bell retired the first 13 men he faced before Detroit got a hit, and his mound opponent, Mickey Lolich, didn't allow a hit until one out in the sixth inning. But the safety beat him as George Scott doubled in two runs after two walks and Lolich's error on a grounder.

Dobson, making his first start of the season, got his victory when Don Wert homered off loser Gary Waslewski in the seventh and Price's hit and three walks scored another.

Satriano, a pinch hitter, bounced his hit over the head of reliever Roger Nelson and into center field after three walks, a wild pitch and a sacrifice loaded the bases with one out.

Rookie Elrod Hendricks of the Orioles forced the game into extra innings when he hammered a two-run, two out homer in the ninth inning.

Pine Bluff Athlete Signs With Baylor

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Joe Trotter of Pine Bluff, Ark., signed a track scholarship with Baylor University Tuesday.

Trotter, the Class AA Arkansas high school hurdles champion, was a student at Merrill High School.

He had times of 13.9 seconds in the highs and 18.7 in the low hurdles.

List of Pro Veterans Cut More

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The signing of Bill Truax and Jacques MacKinnon cuts the list of pro football veterans who played out their options in 1967 and were looking for new connections.

The Los Angeles Rams started out with three who were unhappy with terms or conditions for various reasons. Truax was the only one to sign back with the Rams.

Bill Munson, disenchanted with his role of playing second fiddle to Roman Gabriel, the No. 1 quarterback, was traded off to the Detroit Lions. In return the Rams got Pat Studstill, a flanker and punter; Milt Plum, a veteran quarterback, and Tom Watkins, a running back, plus a No. 1 draft choice.

Bucky Pope, the claw from Catawba who was sensational as a pass catcher in his rookie year, 1964, also played out his option after a few years as a part-time player due to knee surgery. The Rams sent him to the Atlanta Falcons recently for Jim Wilson, a guard, and Bob Sanders, a linebacker.

MacKinnon, a former line-backer who was moved to tight end by the San Diego Chargers, signed back with the same club. He played behind Willie Frazier most of last season.

San Francisco still has a big one out. He is Dave Parks, the top-flight split end who was hobbled by injuries last season and wound up on the injured reserve list because of a pulled groin muscle.

In all cases, the player can sign with a club but the NFL club that signs him must compensate his old team. In many cases that has wound up costing the new team a No. 1 draft choice.

There are four AFL players who are in the same free-agent category. Cincinnati has two—Frank Buncom, a linebacker, and Dick Van Rapphorst, a place kicker. Both were with San Diego last year, played out their options and were included in the expansion draft to stock the new team at Cincinnati.

The other AFL players are Mary Schottenheimer, a line-backer, and Bud Meredith, a defensive lineman, both of whom were with Buffalo last year.

Man with a Hot Bat

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The man they call Hondo was sprawled out on the single bed, stomach down, his chin supported by a pillow and two huge arms. He had on jockey shorts and a smile. Nothing else.

Frank Howard, leading the league in batting, home runs and runs batted in, was holding court informally. These are the happy days for Hondo, if not for the Washington Senators.

By hitting 15 home runs in the month of May, the most awesome figure in baseball finally has the batting statistics to match his impressive dimensions—six-foot-seven inches and a fluctuating 270 pounds.

That weight contributed to the Howard legend. Besides being the fulcrum for some out-of-sight drives, like a recent one in Detroit which vanished a block beyond Tiger Stadium, it's a source of stories for other Senators.

Now Paul Casanova, an amiable Cuban catcher, sat in the same room. He's 6-4 and looked like an emaciated runt next to Howard. A roaring laugh made the bed shake.

"Go ahead, Cas," urged Howard. "Tell 'em about the time in Kansas City."

Except that Howard has a bachelor's degree from Ohio State, you'd have thought it was big Lenny exhorting little George in "Of Mice and Men."

The way the story went, Casanova drew a hotel room adjoining Howard. Around one o'clock in the afternoon, Cas was enjoying the loud sound effects of a "shoot-em-up" on television when there was a thunderous tapping on the wall. Startled, Cas jumped up and opened the door to Howard's room. The big slugger was still in bed, only an arm extended from the covers.

"Time to get up, Hondo," said Cas.

Howard motioned sleepily. "Join me for breakfast." Cas nodded.

Howard picked up the phone and rumbled, "Room service. . . Send up a quart of juice, a quart of milk, half a dozen eggs, dozen strips of bacon, don't spare the toast . . . and a piece of apple pie."

Then he turned to the catcher and asked, "Now what would you like for breakfast, Cas?"

Howard picked up the theme and recalled a celebrated weight-in last year. Gil Hodges was then the Senators' manager and usually checked their weights on Saturday. Howard prepared himself by skipping lunch and dinner on Friday and breakfast on Saturday. He weighed in at a svelte 263 pounds.

Says Magazines Will Discuss Legislature

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said here Tuesday that he could promise that "all the national magazines" will have something to say about the recent special session of the legislature.

Rockefeller, speaking at the Arkansas LP Gas Association meeting, told the group that as community leaders they should decide whether to throw toward a respectable government or "be ostriches and ignore the situation and then get mad when Time, Newsweek and Life or some other national magazine reports the antics of the state government in Arkansas."

The governor referred to the legislature as "that fearless group of nonpartisans who added $5 million on commitments and not one cent in taxes."

He then urged Arkansans to take stock of the legislature and decide whether to "send it back or replace it during elections this fall."

Rockefeller said he was thinking of using a "diddy-type television program" to explain to people who are unable to understand things in terms of millions of dollars exactly what the financial situation is in the state.

Rockefeller said he probably wouldn't call a third special session but said he would guarantee "that I will not sign my name to the tax program that the legislature has given me to work with."

The governor said his term in office has been "the most extraordinary" time in his life. "With six Republicans in the state's government, except for appointees, the odds are definitely against you," he said, "but I think we have done extremely well."

High Altitude Plane, Pilot Is Missing

NAHA, Okinawa (AP)—A high-altitude U.S. reconnaissance plane and its pilot have been missing in the Pacific area since Tuesday while on a "routine training flight," the U.S. Air Force reported.

The Air Force said an air and sea search was launched for the YF12A SR71—a spy plane described as more sophisticated than the U2.

The Air Force said the search was concentrated in the Pacific about 600 miles south of Okinawa and 500 miles east of Manila. The plane was based on Okinawa.

North Vietnam claimed that its anti-aircraft guns shot down an American reconnaissance plane south of Hanoi Tuesday but described it as a "U.S. pilot-less spy plane."

Shooting Called Horror Tragedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson issued this statement today on the shooting in Los Angeles of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy: "There are no words equal to the horror of this tragedy. "Our thoughts and our prayers are with Sen. Kennedy, his family, and the other victims. "All America prays for his recovery. "We also pray that divisive- ness and violence be driven from the hearts of men every- where."

Running into the unlucky expert makes us thankful for a little good luck. He sat East and here is his hard luck story:

"With both sides vulnerable
I dealt and picked up my usual losing hand. My partner opened the bidding with one diamond but North doubled and the best I could do was to find a two diamond bid.
South tried two spades and if my partner had just kept still North would probably have passed and South would have made a nice part score. Still,
I can't blame my partner for competing. He had pretty good defense against any game contract and was not at all upset when it turned out that his rebid caused North to compete to three spades. Of course,
South went on to the game.

"My partner opened the king of diamonds and I played the 10. I was hoping that he would underlead his ace to give me a chance to lead my jack of hearts but my partner
of diamonds. Then he shifted to his six of clubs. I put on my seven. South won; took a spade finesse and then made the mistake of trying to get back to his hand with a second club. My partner trumped and all he had to do to save game and rubber would be to lead his king of trumps and wait for a heart trick but my partner was not going to do anything that sensible. He led a heart right up to South.
South took his queen of hearts, drew the last trump and discarded his remaining two hearts on the ace and king of clubs."

South had tried to get set, but West had refused to help him. Strangely enough, had West led a low diamond at trick two South would probably have made the hand without much trouble. He would take the first heart with his ace; finesse the trump, return to his hand with a club, draw trumps after a second finesse; cash his second high club; enter dummy with a fourth trump, discard two of his hearts on dummy's top clubs and wind up losing only one heart trick.

A—Pass. Your partner knows that you have at least 10 black cards and has chosen to bid three no-trump. Respect his judgment.
TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding two no-trump over your two spades your partner bids three spades.
What do you do now?

never add any of the fluid
after the coals are burning.
Gasoline or kerosene should never be used for this purpose.

Set up your grill in an open area away from the house, dry leaves and bushes and make sure it cannot be easily toppled over. Keep a sprinkling can filled with water handy.
So you can douse the fire quickly if necessary.
I have been asked whether the smoke from a barbecue is harmful. Smoke arises from meat drippings hitting the coals. If the coals are spaced so that no two of them touch each other, the drippings will have little direct contact with them and smoke will be kept to a minimum. Although there is no direct evidence that the smoke is harmful, aside from being mildly irritating, it is well to avoid inhaling it.

The National Safety Council
cites the case of a woman who, when it started to rain, moved her grill and rain guests into her garage. In about 30 minutes, all the guests were very sick and had to be taken to a hospital. No one knew what caused the illness until an alert young doctor suggested the possibility of carbon monoxide poisoning. He proved to be right.
Fortunately, none of the victims in this case died but the party did.

Q—What causes Friedreich's ataxia? Is it serious?
Does it affect the heart? Can it be cured? How long can one live with this disease?

A—This hereditary disease as characterized by a slowly progressive degeneration of the spinal cord. Survival beyond early adult life is rare.
Death is often due to an associated weakness of the heart muscle. No effective treatment is known.

Outdoor barbecues are becoming almost as popular as indoor bathtubs. The only thing that would be likely to reduce their popularity is failure to observe safety precautions. While cooking outdoors, it is essential to wear mitten hot pads and a heavy-duty apron. You should use a long-handled fork, spoon, knife, steak-turner and tongs.
Long matches or twisted paper are recommended for starting the fire, especially if you have poured a liquid fire-starter over the charcoal.
Such a liquid should be used sparingly, in accordance with the instructions on the label.

Violence Once Again Strikes the Kennedys

WASHINGTON (AP) — Once more a Kennedy has been struck by violence.

Once more, a child of Joseph P. and Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy lies in a hospital room—the latest victim of misfortune in a family that had everything going for it: wealth, power and unmatched achievement.

John, the Kennedy who became president, was assassinated. Joe Jr., the oldest, died in the explosion of his bomber on a dangerous mission in World War I. Kathleen, the third of the nine children and a wartime widow, was killed in a plane crash.

Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy, a senator like brothers John and Robert, lay painfully immobilized for a year after suffering a back injury in a plane crash. Rosemary, the second oldest Kennedy, has spent much of her life in an institution for the mentally retarded.

Now Robert, at 42, celebrating a major victory in his drive for the presidency, lay critically wounded from bullets fired at close range.

His wife Ethel, expecting her 11th child, was on the campaign trail with him.

A few years ago, while the family gathered in affliction around Edward's bedside, Robert had enough humor left to remark:

"I guess the only reason we've survived is that there are too many of us. There are more of us than there is trouble."

But trouble has never quit stalking the Kennedys.

Joseph, the 80-year-old patriarch who was ambassador to England, has been paralyzed for years from a stroke. He was with his wife at the family compound at Hyannisport, Mass., when Robert was shot in Los Angeles. The Kennedys were not told about the shooting immediately.

The son of John and Jacqueline Kennedy, Patrick Bouvier Kennedy, died of lung disease when two days old. A daughter had been stillborn to them earlier and both are buried beside their father in Arlington National Cemetery.

The Kennedys' days of heartbreak began in 1941 when Ambassador Kennedy and his family returned from London.

"Rosemary was not making progress but seemed instead to be going backward," Eunice Kennedy said. "At 22 she was becoming increasingly irritable and difficult... her memory and concentration and her judgment were declining."

The family made the agonizing decision to put her into an institution and later launched a drive to aid persons similarly afflicted.

Lt. Joseph P. Kennedy Jr., was just 29 when he was killed Aug. 12, 1944.

He had entered the Navy in 1941, graduated first in his class at pilot training school, and by May 1944 had flown enough combat missions to qualify for a trip home.

Instead he volunteered for a mission that involved loading up a Liberator bomber with 10 tons of high explosive and aiming at a German V-2 rocket site. The pilot was to eject before radio guided the bomber to its target. The plane exploded in flight.

GIs at War Are Angered and Stunned

SAIGON (AP) — American GIs and civilians in Saigon were stunned and angered today by the shooting of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

"Oh, my God," was the immediate reaction of several servicemen.

The U.S. Armed Forces Radio broadcast wire service bulletins of the shooting to the 530,000 American troops in Vietnam.

The Saigon bureau of The Associated Press and other news offices were deluged by telephone calls asking details of the shooting.

"I'd like to get my hands on that man who did it," said Pfc. Bernard Elwood of Joliet, Ill. "God help us," said Spec. 4 William Negeard of Minneapolis, Minn. "What the hell is going on back there? A man has to risk his life to run for the presidency."

Sgt. John Tucker of Tell City, Ind., put his hand to his forehead and exclaimed: "I feel just like the last time." After a moment he added: "Such a rich family and yet so poor. After this tragic year in the United States, I feel safe over here."

Kennedy toured the Far East in 1962 but did not stop in Vietnam. His brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, made a 12-day visit to Vietnam last January.

Gen. Fred C. Weyand, who commands U.S. troops in the provinces around Saigon, was talking with a newsmen when his aide burst in with the news of the shooting.

"Oh, my God," exclaimed Weyand. "Why do those things happen in our country?"

A U.S. Marine colonel commented: "I think it is frightening. First Jack Kennedy, then Martin Luther King and now another political leader. When you get to the point where anyone who rises and speaks goes down, then this is the first step back to the Dark Ages."

Kennedy Shooting Awakens Nation to Peril at Home

I watched Senator Robert F. Kennedy past midnight last night as television reported his dramatic flight for presidential delegates in California's primary — only to be shocked this morning by the news that an assassin had shot him down as he was leaving his Los Angeles campaign headquarters.

The world has spent this morning prayerfully following his fight for life — and the world is judging America harshly for this newest tragedy in the tragic Kennedy family. Are we a "sick nation" as Europe surmises, or have we merely fallen into a weakness which it is up to Americans to overcome?

I heard the broadcasters round up official opinion this morning, and the man with the true message was the oldest and closest friend and political ally of the Kennedy family — John W. McCormack, speaker of the House of Representatives.

Mr. McCormack, an aging but gentle man, spoke of the violent times in which Americans now live. But he spoke further. He said the most tragic fact is the public's approach to the problem of maintaining law and order. America has changed drastically in our generation. Our fault, Mr. McCormack said, is that today we are prone to make our police the defendant instead of the accused.

That was his message while Bob Kennedy, son and grandson of Kennedys he had worked with his whole life, lay close to death. It is a somber reflection from the one man closest to the bereaved family.

The disintegration of law and order begins with the destruction of property, proceeds to mass deaths by mob violence — and finally reaches the point where an individual justifies himself in attempting to kill another individual.

Public opinion is all-important in a republic. It can be lax and aimless and childishly sympathetic, and suddenly all law and order breaks down. We have been watching the crisis approach. Now it is here.

The public's apathy has even infected the highest court in the land. Only last Monday the United States Supreme Court ruled that a murder defendant can't be sentenced to death if those who are opposed to capital punishment are excluded from the jury.

Bob Kennedy was practicing the most-honored rite in America — running for President — and a man shot him.

What do you say now, should Bob Kennedy die?

Didn't the highest court in the land give his assailant a license to attempt murder?

Racing Board Could Meet Anytime

SEARCY, Ark. (AP) — The chairman of the state Racing Commission said Tuesday that the commission might meet again anytime to take up the request of Southland Racing Corp. for a 102-day dog racing season at West Memphis.

Porter Rogers of Searcy said he would have to poll the commissioners first to see when they could get together.

Last Saturday, the commission denied the firm's request for the racing season to begin June 21 because of the uncertainty of Southland's management and because it hadn't received information about the background of directors, officers and other interested parties in High Park Corp. of New York.

High Park gained control of Southland Monday by electing a new board of directors.

University Training Grant

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., announced Tuesday approval of a $23,700 federal training grant to the University of Arkansas for training in water supply and pollution control.

Springdale received a $16,100 grant and Marianna $10,500 for urban planning from the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Change in Peace Talks May Come

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
PARIS (AP) — The Vietnam cease-fire talks resumed today, with U.S. negotiators looking for evidence that North Vietnam may be prepared to make some change in its position to open discussions of basic issues of peacemaking.

U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and Ambassador Xuan Thuy of North Vietnam met for the seventh time following a four-day recess.

Some experts expected an early tactical move by Thuy to open the second stage of the talks. Others professed puzzlement about Hanoi's aims.

"Something's going on," one informant remarked. "Whether it's more—or less—than meets the eye you can't tell yet."

One development was the arrival Sunday of Le Duc Tho, a member of North Vietnam's politburo, who is serving as an adviser to Thuy. He could have brought fresh instructions.

A later Hanoi maneuver took the form of an interview with Defense Minister Vo Nguyen Giap published Tuesday by the French Communist party newspaper, Humanite.

Giap argued in effect that the United States is negotiating with North Vietnam because America's leaders know they are losing the war. He laid down a hard, confident line, but U.S. officials saw one possible exception of course in his statement that "the United States has been fighting not only the Army of Liberation of South Vietnam, but also the forces of the People's Army of the North."

Harriman has been pressing Thuy—but without success—to admit that North Vietnamese forces are fighting in the South.

Nowadays a Wooden or Plugged Nickel Worth More Than Real Thing

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

We used to be warned, "Don't take any wooden nickels." Or, when we bought a thing not worth its price, "That isn't worth a plugged nickel." But our values are so topsy-turvy today that a wooden or plugged nickel is worth more than the real thing.

Aside from appearing looped in public, one of the most distasteful habits a girl can acquire is that of smoking her cigarettes down to the edge of the filter.

One of the puzzles of marriage is why two people so often would rather make war than love on rainy days.

Nothing makes a fellow feel more virtuous on the Sabbath than being the first member of the family to wake up, and then going out and carrying in the Sunday newspaper all by himself.

It is time for a man to clean out his wallet if he goes through it and finds one picture and five business cards of people he no longer can remember.

Science says that yawning is sometimes an indication of intense interest. But no guy who ever had a girl yawn in his face while telling her the story of his life ever felt totally flattered.

A slum neighborhood is one in which 10 per cent of the kids go wrong. A so-called "good neighborhood" is one in which, with all its advantages, five per cent of the kids turn out to be bad apples.

Woman Killed at Vilonia

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Rosemary Bernard, 38, of El Paso (White County) was killed Tuesday in a two-truck collision about four miles east of Vilonia. Police said Mrs. Bernard was trying to drive a pickup truck across U.S. 64 when the truck was struck by a tractor-trailer driven by Eugene Rhodes, 37, of Searcy.

Fighting in Saigon Slacks Off

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Street fighting slacked off in one part of Saigon today amid intelligence reports that the Viet Cong were starting a 10-day rest period before launching a new series of attacks on the capital June 15. But there was no lull in another sector.

Bands of Viet Cong were reported slipping out of Cholon, the Chinese section three miles west of the presidential palace, where street fighting has raged for the past five days.

In suburban Gia Dinh, on the northern and northeastern fringes of the capital, other bands of Viet Cong also were reported trying to pull back through the night.

A blocking force of South Vietnamese marines, dropped off by boats along the Saigon River, killed 13 of the withdrawing enemy. Some of them carried North Vietnamese money.

But a fresh company from the North Vietnamese Dong Nai regiment was spotted moving in west of Highway One, Saigon's main artery to the north, and only 500 yards from an American advisory compound in Gia Dinh.

Dive-bombing South Vietnamese Skyraiders and artillery smashed a large residential area abandoned by civilians. But the enemy troops still held out in a cemetery and a multi-story building two miles north of the presidential palace.

A company of South Vietnamese marines, apparently inexperienced in the use of tear gas, accidentally set off several gas grenades among themselves. Panic and confusion halted their advance for an hour as the marines fumbled for gas masks and ran for water.

The enemy got a whiff of the gas and pulled out.

Presidential Race Is at Standstill

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The shooting of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy moments after a rousing California primary victory speech has brought the Democratic presidential race to a standstill and left its prospects in disarray.

His lead over Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy continued to grow in the confusion that followed.

McCarthy canceled plans to campaign in Seattle and said he would instead return to Washington, D.C.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey also cancelled campaign plans and said he would return to Washington from Colorado Springs, Colo., where he was to make a graduation address at the U.S. Air Force Academy.

The California Democratic winner was to control 174 delegates.

Jordan Hit by Israeli Gunfire

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The heaviest Israeli attack across the Jordan River in two months ushered in the first anniversary today of the Arab-Israeli war. An uneasy calm reigned after the eight-hour fire fight Tuesday.

"We hope this will teach Jordan the lesson once and for all that the shelling of settlements and army positions is taboo," said Maj. Gen. Haim Barlev, Israel's chief of staff.

Artillery exchanges across the Jordan River and an Israeli air strike on Jordanian positions left ripe wheatfields blazing on both sides of the river south of the Sea of Galilee. Jordan reported nearly 100 Jordanian and 45 Israeli casualties. Israel admitted only three Israeli farm workers killed and six wounded.

Each side claimed the other began the fight. Officials in Jordan said the Israelis launched a "surprise attack," while Yosef Tekoah, Israel's ambassador to the United Nations, said it became "necessary to order Israeli aircraft into action in self-defense" after Jordanian artillery attacks on six collective farm settlements in the Beisan and Jordan valleys.

Israeli sources reported no planes lost in the air strike. Jordan claimed four were shot down. The Jordanians also claimed destruction of four Israeli tanks, six armored cars and three artillery positions.

125 Attend Girl Scout Day Camp

One hundred twenty-one persons and 10 program consultants attended Girl Scout Day Camp at Dyke Springs last week. There were 33 Brownies, 35 Juniors, and 19 Cadettes.

Six children were in the Small Fry Unit (children of workers). Three registered Senior Scouts and five high school girls helped the leaders of each unit. There were five women in the Headquarters Staff, 11 unit leaders, and four part-time unit helpers.

Poison Ivy was the biggest problem. The city park workers sprayed the area thoroughly, but the campers were more thorough than the sprayers. Scratches and bruises were prominent, but there were no real emergencies.

The Parent Night entertainment Thursday night was very successful. Approximately 50 campers from the Junior, Cadette, and Senior Units spent the night on Thursday. There was a threat of storms that night, but the transportation bus was left in camp and the Sheriff patrolled the area, so there was no cause for concern.

Everyone was tired but happy after working hard to "break" camp on Friday. It was a very successful Day Camp because there were many helpers, and the campers were most congenial and hard working.

Robert F. Kennedy Shot Down by Gunman at Moment of Victory in California Election

Gunman Is Identified by Brother

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The man arrested in the shooting of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy was identified today as Sirhan Sirhan, 23, who has a brother who lives in nearby Pasadena.

Mayor Samuel Yorty told a jammed police headquarters news conference that the identification was made by a man who said he was Sirhan's brother, Adel Sirhan, and who was traced through the gun. The tracing was made by Los Angeles police, and it was indicated that the gun was traced through several hands.

Sirhan Sirhan apparently once lived in Jerusalem, Yorty said, but declined to speculate on his nationality.

Four $100 bills were found on the man, "with which he was planning on leaving if he could get away," Yorty said.

A newspaper clip not favorable to Kennedy was found on the man, Yorty said, from a Pasadena newspaper.

Prosecution Witnesses in LSD Trial

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Ten witnesses testified for the prosecution Tuesday as the first trial under a 1967 state law making possession of LSD a felony opened here in Circuit Court.

Ritchie L. Campbell, 22; his wife, Pamela, 20, and Mary Rose Alexander, 20, all of Little Rock, are charged with illegal possession of LSD, a hallucinatory drug. The Campbells are charged with possessing marijuana but they are not being tried for this.

Two detectives testified that Campbell ordered 20 LSD "Flashlights" — capsules, each containing 600 micrograms of the drug — from California in January. The three were arrested in Little Rock Feb. 20. Buddy Goldston, a chemist at the federal Food and Drug Administration laboratory in Dallas, Tex., testified that he tested the power in the capsules and determined that it was LSD.

The trial resumed today.

With stunning rapidity at 12:15 a.m., a man police described as a Caucasian, about 25, 5 feet 5 and 120 pounds, with dark hair and complexion, emptied the chamber of an eight-shot .22 pistol.

Kennedy lay back for a time on his back in the kitchen, eyes open, crowd milling around him. Some observers say they heard him say, as he was lifted into a police ambulance, "Oh, no, no, don't."

Pandemonium broke loose. Roosevelt Grier, giant Negro tackle for the professional Los Angeles Rams, quickly grabbed the much smaller gunman, wrestled the gun from him and held him for police.

Condition Critical After Surgery

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A gunman shot down Sen. Robert F. Kennedy today moments after he proclaimed victory in California's Democratic presidential primary election. After more than three hours of surgery for removal of a bullet from his brain he was in "extremely critical condition."

Bystanders grabbed the man and wrested a pistol from him at the scene. After hours of questioning in which he declined to identify himself or discuss the shooting, authorities arraigned him on six counts of assault with intent to commit murder.

Five other persons were wounded.

The presidential contender was struck down about 4 1/2 years after his brother, President John F. Kennedy, was slain in Dallas by a bullet in the head fired by a hidden rifleman.

The slender, dark-haired young man charged with the shooting sat stonily silent for hours under police questioning, giving only a lone "yes" to one question.

But finally, officers said, he opened up and talked volubly — but not about himself or the shooting.

He was described as "very cool, very calm, very stable and quite lucid" and apparently well educated.

But whenever asked about the shooting, "he just sat there."

He was arraigned in secret as John Doe and bail was set at $250,000.

All but a fragment of the bullet was removed from the New York senator's brain, an aide said, but a second and less serious bullet remained in the back of his neck.

For Kennedy, said press secretary Frank Mankiewicz, the next 24 to 36 hours are critical.

He said vital signs—pulse and breathing—are in good order but there "may have been some impairment of the blood supply to the center of the brain. The center, he said, controls pulse, blood pressure and tracking of the eyes—but not the thinking processes."

The 42-year-old New York Senator came from behind in California's crucial primary to accrue a winning lead over Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy around midnight. Kennedy had proclaimed his win to about 2,000 supporters at an Ambassador Hotel rally and was taking a shortcut through the kitchen to a meeting with newsmen when shots rang out.

With stunning rapidity at 12:15 a.m., a man police described as a Caucasian, about 25, 5 feet 5 and 120 pounds, with dark hair and complexion, emptied the chamber of an eight-shot .22 pistol.

Kennedy lay back for a time on his back in the kitchen, eyes open, crowd milling around him. Some observers say they heard him say, as he was lifted into a police ambulance, "Oh, no, no, don't."
